NUMBER 16.

ERICSSON

Back to Kentucky Again.

This Noted Trotting Stallion, formerly called MORGAN CHIEF.

WILL make the present season at my stables, seven miles from Lexington, and eleven miles from Winchester, immediate miles on the old Todd's road, at the crossing of the Walnut Hill road, and will be permitted to serve a limited number of mares at the low figure of Seventy-five Dollars the Season.

Payable at the time of service. Any mare proving not to be in foal, will be permitted to breed back free of charge next season, if the horse should be living. If the horse is sold or moved out of the State before any mare should be in foal, one-half of the money will be refunded. Mares pastured on good blue grass pasture at $2.50 per month. Strict attention and all possible care taken to prevent accidents or escapes, but will not be responsible if any should occur. The above terms will be strictly adhered to.

ERICSSON is 13 years old this spring; is a mahogany bay, stands 16 1/2 hands high, and weighs 1,300 pounds. He was sired by Clay's Mambrino Chief, out of the trotting mare Mrs. Cagle, who could go her mile in 3 minutes, after she was 20 years old, without training. Clay's Mambrino Chief was got by Mambrino Paymaster, by Mambrino, by imported Messenger.

ERICSSON made his debut to the trotting world in this State, at four years old. He beat Kentucky Chief and Albion over the Lexington Course, at mile heats, on the 27th May, 1860, with only seven days training in a 242 1/2 mile race, won in three straight heats, time—2:40, 2:42, 2:37 1/2. Over the Woodlawn Course on the 26th of October, 1860, he beat Kentucky Chief for a purse of $200, mile heats, best three in five, in harness time—2:29 1/2, 2:34 1/2, 2:32 1/2, losing the first heat. This is the fastest four-year-old time ever recorded in the annals of racing.

ERICSSON is a half brother to Lady Thorn, Mambrino Pilot, Brignoli, Kentucky Chief and Idol, and cousin to Dexter and George Wilkes, the most renowned trotters now upon the turf. He is the sire of Lumber, Eagle Eye, Mambrino Maid, St. Albans, William Erie, Gay Eric, and others of great promise.

ERICSSON was imported by Messenger, that Grand progenitor of the great trotting family of America, the best in the world. They have illustrated their worth by enduring records upon the tracks of the race course. He has enriched their owners in the past, and will contribute to the wealth of the public in the future, as the sires and dams of an illustrious progeny of worthy descendants. Hereditary law is a history of the past, and a guide to the future. What will take place, is a foretelling consequence of what has taken place. ERICSSON therefore stands engaged to produce colts that can trot in 2:30. Breeders have now the rare opportunity of breeding from the greatest four-year-old winner upon the American turf, and from a breed that have produced the acknowledged champions of the world.

Address—ENOCH LEWIS, Agent for K. C. Barker, Lexington, Ky. Sentinal copy 6 weeks and send bill to Lexington Overseas and Reporter. April 1, 1869-ov.

Membrino Chief

THIS horse will stand the present season, commencing the 20th of March, and ending the 1st of July next, at my stables, 5 miles from Mt. Sterling, and 7 miles from Owingsville, on the turnpike leading from the former to the latter place, and will serve mares at $20 the Season!

The money due on the 1st of July next, at which time the season will expire. Mares proving not to be in foal can be bred back next season FREE OF CHARGE. Good Blue Grass Pasture furnished mares at $2 a head per month. Care will be taken to prevent accidents or escapes, but no responsibility should either occur.

We confidently believe from the blood, shape, style, color, size and action that we are offering to the breeding community the services of the most valuable brood horse in Kentucky, and at lower rates than any such horse is standing at.

DESCRIPTION AND PEDIGREE.

Membrino Chief is a rich mahogany bay, without a white mark, is a little upwards of 16 hands high, shows great constitution, bone, style and action; has never been trained, and we believe if properly trained and handled, that he would show as much speed as any of his distinguished family have ever done. There is Lumber, his half brother, that stands at the head of fast stallions in Kentucky.

(Membrino Chief was sired by Ericsson, (formerly Enoch Lewis) Morgan Chief, and he by the late J. B. Clay's old Membrino Chief, who produced more fast trotting horses than any horse ever d in the United States. There is nothing known of Ericsson's dam except that she was a fast trotter and produced some of the fastest trotters in Kentucky. Membrino Chief's dam was got by Aratus, and he by the King of horses, old Sir Archie. Grand dam was got by Timoleon, who was the best son of old Archie and produced more race horses and the best ones the world has ever known. Boston, the best race horse of his day, was sired by Timoleon; Lexington, DeCompte, and a host of others too numerous to name here, who are the acknowledged champions of the turf, were all sired by Boston. This it will be seen that Membrino Chief is the direct descendant of the best race horses of which we have any record, and we believe it is correct by all practical breeders of trotting horses that the direct line of success is to breed the best bred turf mares to the best trotting horses that can be found. Taking that as the data, we would like to know where this horse has a superior. Grant and the Politicians.

While Grant was a candidate for the Presidency, and even before, it was strenuously urged as a reason why he should be supported that he was the people's candidate, that he had never been corrupted or contaminated by the impurities of politics, and that if elected he would cut loose from the politicians, do his own thinking and act independent of the trammels and dictates of party. These persuasions induced many to support him. They brought him thousands of votes. They compassed and secured his election. The people thought they would have a man in the Presidential chair who would possess the integrity of Jefferson and the firmness and decision of Jackson, and who, because he had never said or did a wise thing, would say and do many wise ones when he came to the helm of affairs.

The election was over. Johnson went out; Grant came in—quiet, silent, and brimful of unuttered wisdom. His cabinet appointments were kept with wonderful secrecy, and his selections were evidently made without the advice of the politicians. He did not call about him the magi of his party to inquire who should have a place in his family of advisers. So far, so good. His admirers clapped their hands and set up the incense of adulation at this instance of independence. His plucky spirit, however, soon broke down. The derisive laughter that greeted most of the cabinet appointments, convinced him that he had committed a stupid blunder in not taking counsel of the leading and experienced men of his party. The assignment of Stewart the money-bag, was the first breach the politicians made on his works and they have been diligent in improving their advantages, until Grant is now wholly in their power, a mere puppet and a man of straw, bound hand and foot and obedient to their will. To-day, he is worse bedridden by cunning and insidious politicians than any President we have ever had. They do his thinking, his speaking. They put views in his mind, and words in his mouth. He bows uncomplainingly to their supremacy. He no longer has the courage and will to rely upon his judgment in the choice of competent and suitable men to fill the various offices in his gift; the task of making the selections is confided to the politicians.

At their beck and nod, he appoints foreign envoys, nominates consuls and select officers for the revenue. Nay, he has been so apt a scholar, and learned with such marvelous rapidity in the new school where he is taught, that in addition to beheading his enemies, he cuts off the official heads of his own friends. Radicals of the "true blue" stripe, and "loil" to the core, at the suggestion of the politicians, are removed, and others appointed in their place. In short, there is now nothing to be done that Grant is not willing to do.

The Supreme Court.

This body has at last decided the celebrated McCordle case and dismissed the appeal on the ground that the court had no jurisdiction. The legislation of Congress anticipated the work of the judiciary and the judiciary has bowed in servile submission to the will of Congress. Meantime, a citizen has suffered a wrong, for which there is no redress, and when seeking to vindicate his personal liberty he is turned out of the court under the convenient dodge that the court had no jurisdiction of his case.

This decision is in keeping with the conduct of the Court in two other matters of grave moment now pending before them. Gen. Blair was denied his vote last year under the registration acts and test oaths of the State of Missouri and he sued to vindicate his right, and defeated in the District Court, he appealed to the Supreme Court. The case has been fully argued, it is of vital importance to the whole of Missouri that the question should be passed upon, and yet, the court takes time until next fall. And so in the matter of the constitutionality of the Legal Tender Act. For months this question has been squarely before the Court. It has been thoroughly, patiently, laboriously and exhaustively presented to the Judges and discussed in every phase by the profoundest legal minds in the country. The entire Confederacy are interested in the decision and have been waiting and watching for an announcement of an opinion. One day we are told that a majority of the court are adverse to the constitutionality of the act; another day that a majority favor its constitutionality. The public mind has long been in uncertainty and suspense; and the people are harassed by heavy and expensive litigations growing out of the solution of the question; and, in answer to all this, we are now told that the settlement of this question is adjourned to the coming autumn, that it is not prudent and would prove detrimental to the public interests just now to open up and utter an opinion. For months the policy, the Court shrinks from the question and the question and the question.

Mr. Luse, of Indiana, has been appointed and confirmed as Surveyor of Customs of the city of Louisville. This gentleman is the editor of a negro nose-rag at New Albany, Ind., and his appointment has created quite a furore among the Louisville Radicals.

Two construction trains are run daily between Covington and a point about two miles beyond Walton, Boone Co., Ky., on the Louisville, Cincinnati and Lexington Railroad. There remains but about four miles of track to be laid to complete the road. The first train will go through from Covington to Louisville in about four weeks.

independence of the judiciary is a myth. The last bulwark of our freedom is melting away. Marshall and Taney, and the great lights that adorned the Supreme Bench in former days were not wont to meet grave issues in this style.

Mr. Motley.

The unfines of some of Grant's appointments to foreign missions is the subject of various comment. To the English Court, he has sent John Lathrop Motley, the historian of the "Dutch Republic" and of the "United Netherlands." This nomination is held to be singularly ill-advised and unfortunate by many. It is true that Mr. Motley is a man of fine culture, scholarly attainments, and of deep research in history. His books are regarded as invaluable contributions to the department of historical literature, and the charm of their style, the elegance of their diction, and wealth of their information, have given him a high rank as a man of letters and done much to rescue America from the charge of literary poverty. But the ability to write a good book does not confer the ability to be a successful and adroit diplomatist. Mr. Motley knows little of the practical workings of politics. His life has been that of a student. He has mixed but little in the intricacies of diplomacy, and has but little skill in unravelling its tangled web. Most of his boyhood and many years of his manhood have been spent abroad. His sympathies with our people and institutions are feeble. His tastes are not American or Democratic. He has not spent his time nor employed his pen in adorning the annals of his own country but has shed the light of his genius on the history and character of a people of the Old World. His career as envoy to Berlin was a failure. Now, this student, without experience in the conduct of public affairs, with no knowledge of government save that derived from books, is accredited to the highest court in Europe, and is expected to cope with the veteran diplomatists of one of the first powers on the globe. The English mission should have been filled with a tried statesman, with a minister bred in Courts, and conversant by actual observation with the machinery of governments and cabinets. Our relations with England just now are singularly interesting and complex. Delicate and momentous questions involving perhaps, the peace of Christendom are to be decided, and, perhaps, the issue of war or peace hangs on the skill and finesse of the Minister. He should, therefore, be a statesman capable of grappling and comprehending the principles of international law, and not a mere student and man of letters with his head full of visionary and Utopian schemes of government.

The Frankfort Yeoman says some of the Kentucky papers have made an error in announcing the Senatorial districts from which members will be elected in August. The Thirty-fourth District, composed of Magoffin, Breathitt, Johnson, Morgan, Wolfe, and Owsley, does not re-elect Hon. J. H. Gardner holding over. The Nineteenth District, composed of Hart, Larue, and Green, should have been given in its stead to complete the list. The error arose doubtless from the fact that Hon. T. P. Cardwell, whose term expired, was from Breathitt, and accredited to the Thirty-fourth District, while, under the new apportionment of 1867, Mr. Gardner represents that district.

The Richmond Register of the 9th contains a report of the railroad meeting held in that city on the 5th inst., which was largely attended and united in its action. Resolutions were passed favoring the construction of a road from Paris to Richmond via Winchester, and a committee appointed to confer with the Kentucky Central Railroad and the city of Cincinnati to ascertain what aid would be extended by them.

The time for the payment of the tax on whisky in bond has been extended to June 30th, 1869. Parties keeping whisky in bond after the 20th day of April, will be required to pay an additional tax of one cent per gallon per month.

The New York Herald sees no salvation for Grant's administration but in annexing all outlying territory on the continent, North and South.

A carpet-bagger from Michigan, representing himself as a minister of the gospel commissioned by General Grant to preach to the colored brethren of Kentucky arrived in Uniontown last week. An immense crowd of negroes assembled to hear him at the church, but he could not utter a word, and he finally confessed that he was an impostor. The deacons of the church presented him before the city court and he was committed to jail as a vagrant.

Rail Road Meeting.

At a meeting of the citizens of Montgomery county, held in Mount Sterling on Saturday, 17th April, 1869, on motion, Judge M. M. Cassidy was called to the chair, and Will. T. Hanly was appointed Secretary, and after some appropriate remarks by the Chairman, and Maj. Turner, Maj. Tenney, Hon. R. Apperson, and Richard Reid, Esq., the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved 1st, That the chief difficulty in successfully initiating a railroad project is to secure the co-operation of its scattered friends and to raise a fund sufficient to complete a thorough actual geologic and mineralogic survey of the route and its vicinity, and to employ a competent man to devote his whole time to possessing himself of the requisite information which will enable him to induce the great cities into whose laps wealth will flow from its completion, and the great railroads already finished whose profits will be multiplied by its completion, to subscribe large amounts of stock thereto; and in visiting such cities and corporations, and private capitalists, and those living along the line, and laying before them in person and through the public prints the facts which will induce them to subscribe, and in interesting them in speculation in the coal and iron along the line.

2d, That we invite the friends of internal improvement throughout the State to hold meetings and make an organized effort to secure the passage of an act by the next Legislature which will give the people an opportunity to extend liberal State aid to railroads.

3d, That the citizens of Fayette, Clark, Bath, Menifee, Elliott, Carter, Lawrence and Boyd counties, and of the cities of Lexington and Louisville be and are requested to appoint delegates to meet those appointed by this meeting in Convention at Lexington, Ky., on Wednesday after the second Monday in May next, to consider what steps should be taken to secure the building of a railroad from Lexington to the mouth of Big Sandy.

4th, That we invite the cities of Cincinnati and Covington, and the counties of Pendleton, Bourbon, Harrison, Nicholas, Powell, Wolfe, Owsley, Clay, Knox, Harlan and Bell, and the cities of Knoxville and Morristown, Tennessee, to send delegates to meet in Convention at Cincinnati, on Wednesday after the fourth Monday in May next, to take steps to secure the building of a railroad from some eligible point on the Kentucky Central to the Cumberland Gap, and from thence to Morristown and Knoxville, Tennessee.

5th, That the delegates appointed by the counties on the line of the last named route be and are hereby requested to possess themselves of all the information they can obtain with regard to the practicability and advantages of the route, the distances from one point to another, and its connections with routes south, south-east and south-west, and especially with regard to the distances from Morristown or Knoxville to all of the Southern cities by railroads already completed or in process of completion.

6th, That Hon. B. J. Peters, M. M. Cassidy, Will. Hoffman, Thomas Turner, Richard Reid, Gen. John S. Williams, James Howard, C. J. Glover, Peter G. Flood, Will. T. Hanly, Col. Thomas Johnson, and Josiah Anderson be and are hereby appointed delegates to attend the proposed Conventions at Lexington and Cincinnati.

7th, That the Mt. Sterling, Owingsville, Lexington, Winchester, Louisville, Paris, Cynthiana, Covington, Cincinnati, Morristown and Knoxville papers be requested to publish these proceedings.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

M. M. CASSIDY, Chairman.

Resolution of the State Central Committee.

ROOMS DEM. STATE CENTRAL COM.,
FRANKFORT, March 31, 1869.
At a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee, held on the 30th ult. to consider various communications in regard to the basis and ratio of representation in County and District Conventions the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That in all County and District Conventions to be held for nominating candidates, or appointing delegates for the ensuing August election, the Presidential vote of November, 1868—being the last general election—shall be the basis of representation shall be one delegate for every one hundred votes cast for Seymour and Blair, and one for every fraction of fifty or more, and in County Conventions one for every fifty votes, and one for fractions of twenty or more.

J. STODDARD JOHNSON,
Secretary.

The Mayville Eagle says: "The trial of John J. Key for the murder of his father and Moses Givens has been set for the 19th inst. We learn that his counsel will file affidavits for continuance. It is probable the case will not be tried until next fall, if then. The charge against R. I. Key, as accessory to the murder was dismissed by the Grand Jury, who found the evidence was not sufficient to justify an indictment. The death of Moses Givens removed an important witness in the latter case."

A Radical Convention will meet at Nashville, May 20th, to nominate a candidate for Governor or of Tennessee. Colonel Stokes seems now to be the most prominent aspirant.

A correspondent writes to be informed if Grant's middle name is Smith (Ulysses Smith Grant). We suspect the wretch is a Smith himself and wants a postoffice. We decline to answer.—[Cincinnati Commercial.]

WILL make the present season at the stable of the subscriber, living in Montgomery county, 6 miles southwest of Mt. Sterling, on the line of Clark and Montgomery, on the road leading to Upper Howard's Creek, and will be permitted to serve a few mares at $25 to insure a mare in foal, the money due as soon as the fact is ascertained and the mare parted with. Care will be taken to prevent accidents or escapes, but will not be responsible should any occur.

Montgomery Morgan is a beautiful black, 7 years old this spring, stands 16 hands and upwards; for style and muscle he is surpassed by none. Examine the horse and he will speak for himself. Montgomery Morgan was sired by Enoch Lewis Morgan Chief. His sire trotted over the Association Course, with 7 days' handling, in April, 1860, a mile in 2:43, beating Albion and Kentucky Chief, October 13, 1860, he beat Idol, match for $500, in 2:49, 2:42, 2:38, at Louisville, Oct. 26, 1860, beat Ky. Chief in 2:39, 2:34, 2:32—2:32 the best time ever made by a four-year-old in America. As to the performances of Montgomery Morgan, I refer the public to Mr. Al. Peters, who has had him in training. His dam was by Halcorn, jr. She was a fine trotter. Grand dam Messenger. There is no need of a further pedigree.

Black Sampson.

A No. 1 mule jack, by Nelson's Black Hawk, he by Everett's Mammoth, dam a Warrior-jennet. He will stand at Ten Dollars to insure the money due as above.
W. H. NELSON.

THE WELL-KNOWN AND SPLENDID SADDLE STALLION, DIAMOND!

WILL stand the present season at the Bob Martin farm, near Winchester, Ky., in Clark county, at TWENTY DOLLARS per season.

Diamond is by the old saddle horse Denmark, dam the celebrated Concord mare. Grass furnished mares from distance at $2 50 per month.

"I have used this work for many years, and I regard it as a work of extraordinary value—full of instructive matter. I would rejoice to see it in wide circulation."

From Rev. W. H. Hopson, D. D. Pastor Walnut St. Christian Church, Louisville, Ky.
"I heartily recommend the work of Conybeare & Howson, as a most valuable book and eminently worthy of a wide circulation."

From Rev. W. H. Anderson, D. D. of the Methodist Episcopal Church, late of Louisville, Ky.
"From my knowledge of the work I take a pleasure in recommending it as most valuable to every Bible reader."

From Rev. A. T. Spalding, Pastor of the Walnut St. Baptist Church, Louisville, Ky.
"The history of the great Apostle is itself a world of profitable instruction. This work is one of very great merit, setting forth the life and labors of this great man in such a way as to make it a standard work for ages."

From Rev. Stuart Robinson, D. D. in Free Christian Commonwealth, Louisville, Ky.
"It must not be supposed that this edition is after the fashion of the 'cheap editions' of our times—to be issued in an inferior style of paper and type."

The specimen sheets of this "People's Edition" are executed in elegant, large and clear type; and the translation of the notes—renders it much more valuable to mere English readers, while it detracts nothing of its practical-value to classical scholars.

We rejoice in the circulation of such books as the "Life and Epistles of St. Paul" among the people, as well as among clergymen and students of theology,—and therefore, we wish the publishers great success in their enterprise of a "People's Edition" of this admirable help to the study of the Acts of the Apostles and of the Pauline Epistles."

JOB WORK

THE SENTINEL.

THURSDAY, APRIL 22, 1869.
LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS

The place to buy—Campbell & George's.

See notice to trespassers in another column.

Furnishing Goods of all kinds for gentlemen, at Campbell & George's.

John J. Speed has been appointed to the office of Post-master at Louisville.

C. J. True, for some time commandant of this post during the war, has been appointed Consul to St. Thomas.

Geo. H. Doherty has been appointed Assessor of Internal Revenue for the Eighth District of Kentucky.

The handsomest assortment of cloths and cassimeres in town at Campbell & George's.

Mr. A. J. Morey, editor of the Cynthiana News, was married to Miss Endora Cassell, of Fayette county, on Tuesday.

Good ribbed cotton hose, at twenty-five cents per pair and a great variety of Dry-goods, Notions, Boots, Shoes and Hats offered low for cash at Berkley & White's.

Last Monday was county court day, but in consequence of the rain very few people were in town. There were a few "scrub" cattle on the market; which, we are told, sold at low figures.

Lost.—Somewhere on the streets of Mt. Sterling, a gold scarf-pin, about two inches in length, with plain round gold head. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving it at this office.

Campbell & George make up garments in the latest and most fashionable styles.

All persons indebted to us either by note or account must settle the same on or before the first day of May next, if they wish to save costs. B. F. BERKLEY & CO.

It will be seen by an advertisement in another column that Stitt & Geo. Everitt have changed somewhat the terms for their fine Jack Black Sampson. The attention of stock men is invited to this change.

The card of the Barcroft House, Maysville, Ky., will be found in our columns this week. The Barcroft is one of the institutions of Maysville; and is kept in splendid style. It is convenient to the leading business houses and steamboat landing, and taken altogether, is a first-rate place to stop at.

The Lexington has a population of 22,808. There are 290 more male blacks over the age of 21 than male whites—whereas, last year the whites of the same age exceeded the blacks by 176. There are 65 more white females than males, and 847 more black females than males.

Remember that L. D. Wilson will sell on to-morrow (Friday, the 23d,) his very desirable little farm situated about one mile south-east of this town. This is one of the most desirable places in the county, offering all the comforts and attractions of a country home, yet close enough to town for a residence for a business man. Remember the day.

With the exception of Jefferson, the county exhibiting the largest number of suits brought in 1868, is Daviess. Jefferson exhibits 2,492; Daviess 973; Kenton 832; Fayette 685; Christian 677; Bourbon 618; Mason 578; Lincoln 532; Owen 519; Henderson 518; Warren 511.

Last Monday was "horse show" day, though on account of the rain very few were on exhibition. We have not room to notice each one separately, but among those that attracted particular attention were Mr. A. G. Peters' Membrino Chief, Wm. Nelson's Montgomery Morgan, Dick Williams' Albion, Jim Young's Le Grand, and Jno. T. Jones' Diamond, all of which are fine animals; and cannot be surpassed.

The Lexington Gazette says, the county court of Fayette county will be convened in a few days to order a poll to be opened at the August election, submitting to the voters of the county the question of subscribing $500,000 to the Big Sandy Railroad. This is done in accordance with the new charter of the company, which was granted at the last session of the Legislature.

Commissioner's Sales.—Several tracts of land, in this county, were sold at Commissioner's sale, on Monday last, at the following prices:

Lloyd H. Ryan's farm, lying on Steph-stone, containing 122 acres, to John A. Turner, Jr., at $25 per acre.

Thirty acres, lying near the Levee, belonging to Jim Tipton, of color, to Wesley Allen, at $305 for the whole tract.

Thirteen acres, near Howard's mills, to Geo. Hamilton, at about $60 per acre.

Mr. Hamilton also purchased the Howard Mills, and a store-house, at $8,500 for the former, and $850 for the latter.

Next Monday, the 26th, is the Fifth Anniversary of Odd-Fellowship in the United States. From a small beginning this institution has grown into colossal proportions, and now spreads its benign influences over every state and territory in the Union and carries its blessings to every fireside. Throughout the States the day will be observed with appropriate ceremonies. The large and flourishing Lodge at this place will form in procession and proceed to one of the churches where B. A. Seaver, Esq., will deliver an address commemorative of the day and suitable to the occasion. Everybody is invited to attend, and from the recognized scholarship and fine culture of the orator, a rich repast is anticipated.

SALES OF WHISKY.—Although the whisky market seems to be dull everywhere at present, Howard, Barnes & Co., of the Montgomery Distillery, have made sale of about 400 barrels in the last few days, at prices a little over $1 in bond. 250 barrels of their recent sales have been withdrawn from bond for shipment to T. H. Sherley, Louisville; 100 for shipment to St. Louis, and 25 for Booneville, Mo. The remainder was sold to J. P. Young, of this county. The whiskey made by this firm has a fine reputation; and sells readily.

The Statement of the Insurance Company of North America will be found in our columns this week, and a glance at it will be sufficient to show that it is a sound and healthy company. The North America is one of the oldest companies in the United States, and also one of the safest. It was organized in 1793, and since that time has paid losses to the amount of $20,000,000, and yet has left a cash capital and surplus of $2,500,000. Its rates of surance are as low as any other good and solvent company. We would advise our readers to be careful as to what company they insure with, but they need have no fear of the North America.

Boots & Shoes.—Garrett & Rogers, on Maysville street, next door to the Exchange Bank, have received and opened their large Spring Stock of boots and shoes which will be found fully equal to anything in this section. They sell exclusively for cash, which enable them to sell at a very small margin. They also manufacture all kinds of boots and shoes for gentlemen and all the late styles of shoes and slippers for ladies. They use nothing but the very best materials and have in their employ none but the best workmen, and guarantee satisfaction in all cases.

Forepaugh's Gigantic Circus and Menagerie.

This magnificent show is advertised in another column to appear on Monday, the 26th inst., and comes to us fresh with the color and heraldry of the public press.—This being the 31st annual tour of this great equestrian and zoological aggregation, Adam Forepaugh, the Manager and proprietor, takes the field comparatively a novice to fame, though he stands at the head of his profession for shrewdness and managerial capacity, taking the lead of all his cotemporers as a successful caterer to public amusements in the tented field. He stands out upon the principle that it does not pay to advertise what you are not able to perform. He instructs his agents to this effect, and enjoins upon them by absolute prohibition not to put on paper any feature which does not properly appertain to his great collection. This seems to us to be right and proper and any one who adopts the theory and rigidly enforces it cannot fail of eventual success. Mr. Forepaugh is at the head of a vast collection of rare and curious animals, with beautiful cages and chariots, with camels and dromedaries, the largest and smallest elephants in the world, among which is the famous Botoc; also a splendidly organized circus company, each being separate and distinct from the other, though but one price of admission is charged to both entertainments—giving persons an opportunity who wish to see the animals to retire before the circus performance begins. We advise all of our citizens to go and see this monster show.

Peters' Musical Review for April is to hand, and, in addition to fifteen pages of select reading matter, contains the following new and beautiful music:

"Ain't I sweet?" A lady's comic song. By T. Brigham Bishop. "Rest, darling, rest." A beautiful lullaby. By Will S. Hays. "I'm still a friend to you." Song and chorus. By E. C. Hsley. "He wipes the tear from every eye." Sacred song. By H. P. Danks. "Forest Glade March." By Charles Kinkel. "Damask rose Waltz." By E. Mack. "Golden sunset Mazurka." By J. Harriott.

Music is generally considered expensive but when such a quantity is furnished for the small sum of thirty cents, it ceases to be a luxury, and even the poorest may sing, play, and be happy.

Our musical friends will do well to examine this work, and we feel confident that thirty cents, sent to the publishers for sample copy, will yield them a larger return for their investment than any similar outlay they can make. Send for a copy, and we will guarantee you will think us for calling your attention to it.

It is issued by J. L. Peters, music publisher, No. 429, New York, at the low price of $3 a year, or 30 cents for single copies.

Loving music ourselves, we naturally feel interested in circulating it among our musical friends, and know of no better way of doing so than by recommending Peters' Musical Monthly. The reading matter is not excelled by any of the standard monthlies, and the music is all that can be desired, both as regards quantity and quality. Knowing this to be the case, we have made arrangements with the publisher by which we are enabled to furnish the Review and Sentinel at $1 per year, or we will receive subscriptions at the rate of $3 per year.

CALISAYA BARK.—It is said that Messrs. Drake & Co., (proprietors of the Plantation Bitters) are the largest importers of Calisaya Bark in this country, and that, with the exception of an occasional sale, all they import is used in the compounding of their celebrated Plantation Bitters, to which they undoubtedly are indebted for their wonderful health-restoring properties. As a Tonic and Appetizer they are not surpassed, and we cheerfully recommend them. All first-class Druggists keep them for sale.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

MARRIAGES.

BARNES—DANIELS.—On Thursday evening, 15th inst., at the Ninth Street Baptist Church, Cincinnati, by Rev. Dr. Jeffrey, Thomas C. Barnes, of this town, to Miss Fannie V. Daniels, of Cincinnati.

The young of Cupid's silvery bow has again been heard in our midst, and lured by its music, our young friend has gone over "horse, foot and dragon" to the ranks of the Benedicts. "On Love's eternal camping-ground His happy tent is spread."

Early in life he has enlisted in a good cause. He has chosen a companion as beautiful as the dream of a poet, and bright as the face of a May morning. He is a young man of sterling qualities, of high integrity, and great social excellencies. We extend to him and his fair young bride our warmest wishes for their happiness. Peaceful and unclouded be their days, and may joy weave for them its sunniest idyls.

AUGUST ELECTION—1869.

We are authorized to announce RICHARD REID, Esq., of this county, as a candidate for State Senator in the Twenty-eighth District, composed of the counties of Bourbon, Clark, Bath and Montgomery, at the annual August election, subject to the decision of a Democratic Convention.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Do not Trifle With Danger.

A single spark may kindle a flame that will consume a city, and small ailments neglected, may end in fatal disorders. Bearing this fact in mind, let the first symptoms of debility or nervous prostration be promptly met with invigorating treatment. Foremost among the vegetable tonics of the age stands HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, and whenever the vital powers seem to languish, or there is any reason to suspect that the animal functions essential to the sustenance and purification of the body are imperfectly performed, this invaluable invigorant and antiseptic should at once be resorted to. Indigestion always proves weakness of the bodily powers. Sometimes it happens that the appetite demands more food than the stomach can digest; though not more, perhaps, than is required to keep up the full strength of the frame. The object, under such circumstances, is to increase the digestive capacity of the assimilating organ, so as to make it equal to the duty imposed upon it by the appetite, and capable of supplying the building material of the system as fast as it is required. This object is fully accomplished by the use of the Bitters. They tone and greatly stimulate the cellular membrane which secretes the gastric juice, and the result is that the solvent is mingled with the food in sufficient quantity to convert all its nourishing particles into pure and wholesome elements. If on the other hand, there is a deficiency of appetite, without any corresponding deficiency of digestive power, the effect of the tonic is to stimulate a desire for food. In nineteen cases out of twenty, headache, nausea, nervousness, fainting fits, spasms, and, indeed, most of the casual aches and pains to which humanity is subject, proceed primarily from indigestion complicated with biliousness; and for both these complaints HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS are recommended as a speedy and certain remedy.

FOUTZ'S

Celebrated

Horse and Cattle Powders.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly reinvigorate and strengthen weak and low-spirited horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.

It is a sure remedy in all cases of indigestion, and is of all diseases incident to the animal, such as Cough, Hoarseness, Fever, Colic, &c.

TEMPER, FEVERS, FOIN DEB, LOSS OF APPETITE AND VITAL ENERGY, &c. Its use improves the wind, increases the appetite, gives smoothness and gloss to the coat, and transforms the miserable skeleton into a fine-looking and spirited horse.

To keepers of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It is a sure preventive against Rinderpest, Tetter Horn, &c. It has been proven by actual experiment, to increase the quantity of milk and cream twenty per cent, and to make the butter firm and sweet. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much faster.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c. this powder is a specific. By putting from one-half a paper to a paper in a barrel of swill, the above diseases will be prevented or entirely prevented. If given in time, a certain preventive and cure for the Hog Cholera.

NOTIONS,

The Office Seeker.

The following is from an old story, by J. K. Paulding, the novelist, and first went the rounds of press thirty years ago. It represents a conversation between a member of the Cabinet and a hanger-on for office and is suitable for the present time.

The Secretary was called from his bed one cold winter morning, to attend to business of the "utmost importance." Found a queen, long-sided man, at least six feet high, with a little apple head, a long queue, and a face critically round, as rosy as a ripe cherry; and the following conversation ensued:—

"Well, my friend, what situation do you wish?"

"Why, any, I'm not over particular, but somehow or other, I think I should like to be a Minister. I don't mean of the Gospel, but one of them ministers to foreign parts."

"I'm very sorry, very sorry indeed, there is no vacancy just now. Would not some other place suit you?"

"Why-y-y," answered the apple-headed man, "I wouldn't care much if I took a situation in one of the departments. I wouldn't much mind being a Comptroller, Auditor, or something."

"My dear sir, I'm sorry, very sorry indeed, but it happens, unfortunately, that all these situations are at present filled. Will you not take something else?"

My friend stroked his chin, and seemed struggling to bring down the soarings of his high ambition to the present crisis. At length he answered:—

"Why-y-y, yes; don't care if I get a good Collectorship, or Inspectorship, or Surveyorship, or Navy Agency, or anything of that sort."

"Really, my good sir," said the Secretary, "I regret exceedingly that not only all these places, but every other place of consequence in the Government, is at present occupied. Pray, sir, think of something else."

He then, after some hesitation, asked for a clerkship, and finally the place of messenger at one of the public offices. Finding no vacancy here, he seemed in vast perplexity, and looking all around the room, fixing his eye at length on me, and measuring my height from head to foot. At last putting on one of the drollest looks that ever adorned the face of man, he said:

"Mister, you and I seem to be built pretty much alike; haven't you some old clothes you can spare?"

Them 'ere Legs.

A son of the Granite State went down to Memphis to seek his fortune. He found instead a diaphanous, which gradually saps life, in a chronic form.

It was with this, that poor Jim Bagley was picked up. And month after month it surged. At length he was but the outline of his former self—a perfect skeleton.

A worthy minister of the Gospel saw the poor fellow, and seeing that the King of Terrors had spotted him, determined to call on him and offer spiritual consolation.—He broached the subject somewhat in this manner:

"My dear Mr. Bagley, in view of your relation with this life how do you feel?"

"D——n sick," was the prompt reply.

"Don't swear my poor friend," said the parson, "and then let me ask, do you ever think of your latter end?"

"Lord!" said Bagley; "I hain't thought on anything else for more'n three long months."

"Not, I am afraid, in the right way Mr. Bagley. I beg you pause and reflect. It is time that you begin to wrestle with the Lord."

The sick man looked down at his miserable poker legs extended before him, and with an expression of amazement in his countenance, exclaimed:

"Rattle with the Lord—what, with 'em ere legs," pointing to his own. "Why, parson, he'd flip me to h——ll the first pass."

A TRICK ON DEADHEADS.—A Dubuque tobacco merchant having been bored a long time by deadheads, quietly removed the jar of fine cut to another place and in lieu thereof introduced one of the same size partly filled with molasses. As usual, says the Herald, the tobacco chewers came around. They edged up to the counter in usual routine, reached over and sussed the fists into the molasses, whereupon they sneaked out, wiping their hands on their coat tails and breeches legs, all the while keeping "mum," but kept a terrible thinking. Those acquainted with the plot were watching the maneuvering from distance, and not until at least a dozen or more of the "chewers" got sweetened did the joke leak out.

We are ruined, not by what we really want, but by what we think we do; therefore, never go abroad in search of your wants; if they be real wants, they will come home in search of you; for he that buys what he does not want, will soon want what he cannot buy.

The following is from a local paper:—"Persons wishing to see the editors generally will see them at the printing office.—In their absence, however, invitations to dine, and challenges to fight should either be left with the publisher or in our table drawer."

SAW MILL FOR SALE.

I WILL sell to the highest bidder, on SATURDAY, THE 1ST DAY OF MAY, 1869, my PORTABLE SAW MILL AND FIXTURES, Situated about 3 miles above Ticktown, on the road leading to Stanton. The mill is in good running order, has two saws—one above and one below. It is under good shed, and the location is unsurpassed, as there is an abundance of timber in the immediate neighborhood to run the mill for several years, though the purchaser does not like the location the mill can be easily removed. This is the best opportunity ever offered to get a number one mill in good running order at a bargain. I will sell privately before that day if any one wishes to buy. Terms made known on day of sale, mar 15.

T. BANFIELD.

WHISKEY FOR SALE.

I have on hand

50 BARRELS OF WHISKEY

First make of Howard, Barnes & Co., (March 1st, 1868), which I will sell in packages of ten gallons and upwards. WM. S. BARNES.

PREPARE FOR WAR!

"In time of peace prepare for war," is the old adage, and there is no sentence in the English language more expressive, nor one that is so applicable in innumerable cases. Who is so wise as to know the exact moment that that fell destroyer, disease, will attack him? Then be ye ever prepared, have the Roback's Blood Pills, Stomach Bitters and Blood Purifier at hand and combat disease successfully.—Breen & Young, Agents.

In the Latest Style and Superior Workmanlike Ladies Silk, Satin and Lacing Gaiters and Slippers.

Made to order, in the very best manner and on short notice.

All my work warranted to give satisfaction. Very Respectfully,

Jan. 9. JOHN CURLEY.

HOUSEHOLD REMEDIES.

There are no remedies so well and favorably known as "Household Remedies" as Dr. Roback's Blood Purifier, Stomach Bitters and Blood Pills, and no family should be without them.—Breen & Young, Agents.

W. S. MOORES, M. D.,

Resident Dentist, FLEMINGSBURG, KY.

RESPECTFULLY informs the people of Montgomery county that he has permanently located in Flemingsburg, and solicits a continuance of their patronage.

He would especially invite their attention to his late method of

Extracting Teeth Without Pain

GET THE BEST.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary: 3000 Engravings; 1840 Pages Quarto. Price $12.

10,000 Words and Meanings not in other Dictionaries.

Viewed as a whole, we are confident that no other living language has a dictionary which so fully and faithfully sets forth its present condition as this last edition of Webster does that of our written and spoken English tongue.—Harper's Magazine.

These three books are the sum total of great literature: the Bible, Shakespeare, and Webster's Royal Quarto.—Chicago Evening Journal.

The NEW WEBSTER is glorious—it is perfect—it distances and defies competition—it leaves nothing to be desired.—J. H. Raymond, L. D., Pres't Vassar College.

The most useful and remarkable compendium of human knowledge in our language.—W. S. Clark, Pres't Mass. Agricultural College.

WEBSTER'S NATIONAL PICTORIAL DICTIONARY, 1040 Pages Quarto: 600 Engravings. Price $6.

The work is really a gem of a Dictionary, just the thing for the million.—American Educational Monthly.
